

Football's hidden careers

Stadium safety engineers make sure stadiums are built safely and match crowds are free from danger.

Top essential skill

Broadcast engineers make TV cameras, cables and other tech work smoothly so matches can be shown live.

Fabric technologists develop breathable, sweat-wicking, fabrics for kits.

Catering managers manage the supply of safe food and drink for thousands of fans and players.

Turf pathologists study plant diseases, soil microbes and plant health to keep pitches in perfect condition.

